See the map on the next page

Program:

Real "live" demonstration of:

Project Lifesaver®

Cathy Cieslinski, Pilot Club of Lancaster | Project Lifesaver®
"Bringing your loved ones home"

Cathy's got the incredible story about Lancaster County's Pilot Club's Project Lifesaver®: a program that finds "at-risk" wanderers. These are individuals who are most likely to leave home and become lost. Without Project Lifesaver® the search can take many hours or days at a tremendous cost, and may not result in a successful recovery."

Mark Pugliese, Chief, West Hempfield Police Department
Project Lifesaver® demonstration

Let's see, for real, how trained law enforcement officers engage Project Lifesaver® to locate someone who's wandered from their safe home environment.

This training takes place at the pavilion and grounds of Ironville Park.

The park is located along Prospect Road near the intersection of Fairview Road. The park is situated on a level plateau on top of one of the highest points in the township. It is the former location of the Ironville Fire Company. The entire park is approximately 8.8 acres in size. The site has a paved parking area, a pavilion, basketball court, playground equipment, and open areas for athletic games.
